

A two-day international conference
First Textiles. The Beginnings of Textile Manufacture in Europe and the Mediterranean

7th-8th May 2015

The Danish National Research Foundation's Centre for Textile Research
National Museum of Denmark

Organisation

Dr Małgorzata Siennicka zkv933@hum.ku.dk

PD Dr Lorenz Rahmstorf rahmstor@uni-mainz.de

Programme

Thursday, 7th May 2015

The Danish National Research Foundation's
Centre for Textile Research 2300 Copenhagen
S, Amagerfælledvej 56, Orbit Building, Center for Hjernesgade Auditorium, 1st floor
<http://ctr.hum.ku.dk/contact/newmap/>
<http://ctr.hum.ku.dk/contact/>

8:45-9:00

Registration and coffee/tea

9:00-9:05

Eva Andersson Strand (Centre for Textile Research, Copenhagen, Denmark)
Welcoming address

9:05-9:20

Małgorzata Siennicka and Lorenz Rahmstorf (Centre for Textile Research, Copenhagen, Denmark)
Welcoming addresses and introduction

Session: Fibres and textiles

Chair: Eva Andersson Strand

9:20-10:00

Dorian Fuller (University College London, United Kingdom)

Keynote lecture: Weaving together new Neolithic worlds: Pre-Pottery flax production and textile trade in comparative perspective

10:00-10:25

*Sabine Karg (Institute of Advanced Studies,
Center for Theoretical Study, Charles
University of Prague, Czech Republic.
Copenhagen University, Denmark)*
From seed to thread – new evidence for prehistoric textile plant production in Europe

10:25-10:45

Coffee break

10:45-11:10

Orit Shamir (Israel Antiquities Authority, Israel)
Development and changes of textile techniques from the Neolithic period to the Chalcolithic period in the Southern Levant

11:10-11:50

*Karin Margarita Frei (National Museum of
Denmark and Centre for Textile Research,
Copenhagen, Denmark)*

Keynote lecture: Textile provenance investigations by isotopic tracing techniques

11:50-12:15

Linda Hurcombe (University of Exeter, United Kingdom)

Expanding our thinking on early textiles: rare finds, unusual materials and different technologies

12:15-13:30

Lunch in the canteen of the Copenhagen
University (Building 23, ground floor)

Chair: Karina Grömer

13:30-13:55

Johanna Bank-Burgess (Landesamt für Denkmalpflege, Esslingen, Germany)
Textiles from lacustrine settlements of the first farmers at Lake Constance (Southwest Germany)

13:55-14:20

*Ulla Mannering (National Museum of
Denmark and Centre for Textile Research,
Copenhagen, Denmark)*
The earliest cloth culture in Denmark

14:20-14:45

Janet Levy (Ben Gurion University of the Negev, Beer Sheva, Israel)

From adorned nudity to a dignitary's wardrobe: raiment of the Southern Levant 13,500-4000 BCE

14:45-15:05

Coffee break

Session: Experimental archaeology and cultural comparison

Chair: Marie Louise Nosch

15:05-15:45

Eva Andersson Strand (Centre for Textile Research, Copenhagen, Denmark)

Keynote lecture: First looms. Loom types in the ancient societies

15:45-16:10

Karina Grömer (Naturhistorisches Museum Wien, Austria)

Experiments with Neolithic weaving tools (lunular or crescent shaped loom-weights)

16:10-16:35

Kalliopi Sarri (Independent Researcher, Athens, Greece)

Textiles, baskets and pots: decorative craft transfer in the Aegean Neolithic

16:35-17:00

Agata Ulanowska (University of Warsaw, Poland)

More observations on functionality of Early Bronze Age textile tools from Greece

17:00-18:00

Discussion

18:00

Reception at CTR, Library, 2nd floor

Friday, 8th May 2015

National Museum of Denmark, Cinema ('Biograf') (ground floor), Ny Verstergade 10, 1471 Copenhagen K, <http://en.natmus.dk/museums/the-national-museum-of-denmark/>

10:00-10:15

Ulla Mannering (National Museum of Denmark and Centre for Textile Research, Copenhagen, Denmark)
Welcoming address

Session: Textile production and tools

Chair: Ulla Mannering

10:15-10:40

Miriam de Diego, Antoni Palomo, Raquel Piqué, Maria Saña (Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona, Spain), Xavier Terradas, Ignacio Clemente, Millán Mozota (IMF-CSIC, Barcelona, Spain)

Evidence of textile technology in the Ancient Neolithic site of la Draga

10:40-11:05

Fabienne Médard (Université de Strasbourg, France)

Textile production in Western Europe from the Late Neolithic to the Early Bronze Age: an examination of tools

11:05-11:30

María Irene Ruiz de Haro (University of Granada, Spain)

From East to West: The use of spinning bowls from the Chalcolithic period to the Iron Age

11:30-11:55

Ana Grabundzija (TOPOI, Free University of Berlin, Germany)

Two sides of a whorl

Saturday, 9th May 2015

Facultative excursion to the Land of Legends and its experimental archaeological centre at Lejre <http://www.sagnlandet.dk/en/>

12:00-13:00

Lunch in the National Museum of Denmark
(Museum's restaurant)

Chair: Lorenz Rahmstorf

13:00-13:25

Giorgos Gavalas (Independent Researcher, Greece)

Textile tools and manufacture in the Early Bronze Age Cyclades: the evidence from Amorgos and Keros islands

13:25-13:50

Lisa Völling (MicroArchaeology, Würzburg, Germany)

Spindle whorls in Troy? A critical examination of a common opinion

13:50-14:15

Deniz Sari (Bilecik University, Turkey)

The Early Bronze Age textile implements from the Eskişehir region in inland Northwestern Anatolia

14:15-14:40

Carmen Marian (The Centre of Restoration – Conservation of Cultural Heritage, Textile Laboratory, Romania)

Reading impressions of prehistoric textiles on archaeological ceramic

14:40-15:05

Maria Rosaria Belgiorno (Italian National Council of Research, Rome, Italy)

Pyrgos/Mavroraki textile production in 2000 BC Cyprus

15:05-15:30

Final discussion